Peace at Holdenville.

J. M. Neal is proprietor of the Negro hotel and C. D. Davis is proprietor of the Negro restaurant at Holdenville. Our representative called upon them, between trains, the other day, and he learned from them that they are doing an excellent business and they assured us that whatever had been the bad feeling from the white people to the Negroes, that conditions now are favorable, and Negroes can buy, or rent property wherever they find places that suit them, and they are able to pay for it.

The court house gang of which the Democratic Negroes and their cohorts have so much to say, are responsible for the condition that now prevails in Holdenville. For by the strict enforcement of the law, they have shown the lawless element and Negro haters that this government has not made a mistake in designating them as the preservers of the peace and guarantee of safety to all citizens, regardless of race, color or previous condition, etc.

The fellows in Muskogee and elsewhere in the Indian Territory who are kicking about mixed schools should call a halt, and if they will only stop those white men, some of them high class, from running around after negro women they will meet in a question that is up before the people. There is no danger of mixed schools, but there is a great danger of amalgamation, and even right here in Muskogee when Negro women can be found slipping to offices of white men for immoral purposes. Unfortunately for all, some of these women are married women while others are single, but it makes no difference in so far as the principle is concerned. It is degrading and debasing to both races, and the very white cusses that will dodge around with these debased Negro women are the worst to raise hell about mixed schools. He is afraid his sins will find him out. That at certain hours to a white man's office. Upon close investigation it was found that she went there for immoral purposes. Now, this same cuss would raise hell if he should be compelled to sit at a table with a decent, respectable, intelligent negro man, and yet he can consort with the most debased, degraded and polluted reptiles of the race.

We hope that the law passed by the Creek Council giving all children of man children as well as the full blood Indian citizenship in the Creek Nation.

Mr. Harry W. Bracken announces as a candidate for position as post master of Muskogee. Mr. Bracken is a republican, and a bright young man. He is able and competent, and has many friends in our party who idolize him and who still use all honorable means to accomplish what he most desires. The endorsement of the republicans of the city and vicinity.

Up to this time as chief cook and bottle washer of the Cimeter, we have not and are not committed to any one touching the position of postmaster and in answer to the many questions as to who are you for, and who are you supporting? We say let this be an answer for all: BY THE ETERNAL we are with our friends all the time, and this is no exception to the rule.

Mrs. Marietta Sango, wife of A. G. W. Sango departed this life Thursday, November 3. The remains were accompanied by sorrowing relatives to her former home, Lawrence, Kansas, and there consigned to their last resting place. The Cimeter extends its condolence to the bereaved husband and relatives.

The officers of the Creek Realty Bank and Trust Company gave a smoker to a number of their friends as an appreciation of the success of the Republican party in its sweeping victory over democracy and the assured continuance of prosperity under that magnanimous leader and purveyor of justice, Theodore Roosevelt. After the smoker an organization of colored business men of Muskogee was effected particulars of which will appear in next week's issue of the Cimeter.

retribution will overtake him and in the latter years of life he might drink from the same cup and suffer the same humiliation that he is now forcing upon some hard working negro man.

A few days ago it was reported to this office that a certain negro woman had been continually making visits

Creek parents that are born up to 1906 the right to file will be approved by our good president. It means that the little ones who are not responsible for their coming to this troublesome world, and who are by rights heirs to this rich country shall share in the allotment of the lands of the nation. This means the freed-
